STATE OF WISCONSIN
BEFORE THE MEDICAL EXAMINING BOARD

IN THE MATTER OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS AGAINST

ROGER GREMMINGER, M.D.

Respondent

ORDER DENYING PETITION

The Medical Examining Board issued its Final Decision and Order in this matter on April 22, 1998. By the terms of the board's Order, Dr. Gremminger's license was limited to require that he complete within one year a minimum 10 hours of Category I continuing education on the subject of anticoagulant therapy, and a minimum of 30 hours of Category I continuing medical education courses on the subject of central nervous system diseases and injuries.

By letter dated May 26, 1998, Dr. Gremminger enclosed the syllabus for the course "Neurology for the Non-Neurologist," and the index for a home study course on Neurologic Emergencies completed by Dr. Gremminger in August, 1997. Dr. Gremminger requests approval for both these courses in satisfaction of the 30 hour requirement. Based upon all information of record herein, the board orders as follows:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that inasmuch as the board's Order contemplates and requires continuing education in addition to any CME completed prior to the board's Order, and in addition to the CME biennial training requirement under sec. 448.13, Stats., Dr. Gremminger's request for approval of the course entitled "Neurologic Emergencies" completed by him in August, 1997, is hereby denied.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that approval of the course entitled "Neurology for the Non-Neurologist" is withheld pending receipt of evidence establishing that the course is approved by the AMA as Category I continuing medical education, and establishing the number of credits granted.

Dated this 9th day of July, 1998.

NOTICE OF RIGHTS OF APPEAL

TO: ROGER GREMMINGER MD

You have been issued a Final Decision and Order. For purposes of service the date of mailing of this Final Decision and Order is 7/16/98. Your rights to request a rehearing and/or judicial review are summarized below and set forth fully in the statutes reprinted on the reverse side.

A. REHEARING.

Any person aggrieved by this order may file a written petition for rehearing within 20 days after service of this order, as provided in section 227.49 of the Wisconsin Statutes. The 20 day period commences on the day of personal service or the date of mailing of this decision. The date of mailing of this Final Decision is shown above.

A petition for rehearing should name as respondent and be filed with the party identified below.

A petition for rehearing shall specify in detail the grounds for relief sought and supporting authorities. Rehearing will be granted only on the basis of some material error of law, material error of fact, or new evidence sufficiently strong to reverse or modify the Order which could not have been previously discovered by due diligence. The agency may order a rehearing or enter an order disposing of the petition without a hearing. If the agency does not enter an order disposing of the petition within 30 days of the filing of the petition, the petition shall be deemed to have been denied at the end of the 30 day period.

A petition for rehearing is not a prerequisite for judicial review.

B. JUDICIAL REVIEW.

Any person aggrieved by this decision may petition for judicial review as specified in section 227.53, Wisconsin Statutes (copy on reverse side). The petition for judicial review must be filed in circuit court where the petitioner resides, except if the petitioner is a non-resident of the state, the proceedings shall be in the circuit court for Dane County. The petition should name as the respondent the Department, Board, Examining Board, or Affiliated Credentialing Board which issued the Final Decision and Order. A copy of the petition for judicial review must also be served upon the respondent at the address listed below.

A petition for judicial review must be served personally or by certified mail on the respondent and filed with the court within 30 days after service of the Final Decision and Order if there is no petition for rehearing, or within 30 days after service of the order finally disposing of a petition for rehearing, or within 30 days after the final disposition by operation of law of any petition for rehearing. Courts have held that the right to judicial review of administrative agency decisions is dependent upon strict compliance with the requirements of sec. 227.53 (1) (a), Stats. This statute requires, among other things, that a petition for review be served upon the agency and be filed with the clerk of the circuit court within the applicable thirty day period.

The 30 day period for serving and filing a petition for judicial review commences on the day after personal service or mailing of the Final Decision and Order by the agency, or, if a petition for rehearing has been timely filed, the day after personal service or mailing of a final decision or disposition by the agency of the petition for rehearing, or the day after the final disposition by operation of the law of a petition for rehearing. The date of mailing of this Final Decision and Order is shown above.

The petition shall state the nature of the petitioner's interest, the facts showing that the petitioner is a person aggrieved by the decision, and the grounds specified in section 227.57, Wisconsin Statutes, upon which the petitioner contends that the decision should be reversed or modified. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the person serving it as Petitioner and the Respondent as described below.
